

BERRY SHIPPERS WILL NOT SUFFER

Old Trouble at Wilmington Seems to Have Been Adjusted.

MORE CARS HEREAFTER

Much Damage Reported in Harnett County as Result of Cyclone.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 25.—Chairman Franklin McNeill and Mr. Beddingfield, of the Corporation Commission, returned this morning from Wilmington, and report that there is every indication that the differences that have brought about complaints from the East Carolina Truckers' Association against the Atlantic Coast Line as to refrigerator-car shipments of berries, will be satisfactorily settled before the opening of the season.

Off to Jamestown. Governor R. B. Glenn and personal staff, including Adjutant-General T. H. Robertson, Colonel A. H. Arlington, Colonel Chas. E. Johnson, Colonel Westcott Roberson, of High Point; Colonel D. L. Ward, of Newbern; Colonel Fred C. Cox, of Wadesboro, and Colonel J. S. Cunningham, of Person county, left this morning for Jamestown.

Damage by Cyclone. News is received here of a veritable cyclone, which passed over the Choptank and Spring sections in Harnett county yesterday. Considerable timber was blown down and a number of houses wrecked. The storm also extended to the Chalk Level section, where the residence of Mr. Fred Arnold was among those badly damaged.

Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Davidson College, delivered an address here to-night under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry on the subject, "A Plea for Some Old Ideals."

LAWYER IN STREET DUEL.

Shoots Billiard Hall Man as Result of Old Quarrel.

FRIARS POINT, MISS., April 25.—Gerald Fitzgerald, a prominent young lawyer, shot and killed W. E. O'Connell, proprietor of a billiard hall, here to-day. It is reported the young man had had words several days ago, and when they met to-day both drew revolvers. Fitzgerald shot himself in the right leg. He then killed O'Connell. Another bullet from Fitzgerald's revolver struck his brother-in-law, Ben Booth, in the hand.

Mr. Carnegie Improves. NEW YORK, April 25.—Andrew Carnegie, who has been suffering from bronchitis, was reported to-night as greatly improved. He will probably be confined to his home several days longer.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. Has been used by Millions of Mothers for their children while teething for over Fifty Years. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best of all remedies.

MR. JOHN SWANSON DEFENDS DEAD MAN

Governor's Brother Gives Out State, Claiming That Miss Loving Was Not Harmed.

SAY UNFOUNDED SUSPICIONS

Members of Estes's Family Holds That Judge Loving Jumped at Conclusion.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., April 25.—John T. Swanson, brother of Governor Swanson and brother-in-law of Theodore Estes, who was killed Monday afternoon at Oakridge, gave out a statement this afternoon in which he claims that certain press dispatches relative to the tragedy and the causes leading up to it, have been greatly distorted.

Mr. Swanson claims that Estes gave Miss Loving a drink of liquor at her request, saying that she was feeling badly. On reaching the home of A. L. Kidd, where she spent the night, she showed indications of being under the influence of the whiskey. She was carried from the carriage to bed by Miss Kidd.

He states that Dr. Strother's attention to Miss Loving was only ordinary practice, and he never thought or had any suspicion that she had been assaulted.

Will Defend His Honor.

From reports here, it is apparent that the family of the dead man will leave absolutely nothing undone to clear his name of the charge that he had drugged and assaulted Miss Loving. They hold that Judge Loving killed the victim upon unfounded suspicions, and that if he had waited for Estes to explain, the tragedy would never have occurred.

JURY IN FEUD CASE HAS FAILED TO AGREE

LEXINGTON, KY., April 25.—After twenty hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of Bill Britton, charged with the assassination of Town Marshal James A. Cockrill, at Jackson, Breathitt county, reported a hopeless disagreement, and were discharged to-day. The jury stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction. This was one of the most important feud cases in which Senator Hargis, his brother, Judge Hargis, and others were charged with participation.

John Mitchell Better. CHICAGO, ILL., April 25.—The condition of John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, who is ill in Chicago, was so much improved to-night that the proposed operation for his ailment has been indefinitely postponed.

BRADLEY HAS RUN HIS LAST RACE

Famous Virginia Turfman Had a Long and Noteworthy Career.

HE HAD BRED MANY WINNERS

Robert Bradley Was Known Throughout the Entire Country by Horsemen.

Mr. Robert Bradley, widely known as "Virginia" Bradley, died at his home, "Greenway," near Wilcox Wharf, in Charles City county, about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral services will take place from the residence today at 12 o'clock, and the burial will be in the old family burying-ground in New Kent county. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Martha A. Hubbard, of Charles City county.

Mr. Bradley was widely known, both in Virginia and throughout the country, as a breeder and racer of thoroughbred horses, many of his horses having made national records.

He was one of the most prominent and best beloved citizens of Charles City county, as well as one of the most popular turfmen in this country.

His Long Career. He was born in New Kent county in 1825, and was raised on the home place. He entered the Confederate Army at the beginning of the war, serving gallantly during the entire conflict. After the war he lived in his native county until the early seventies, when he moved to Charles City county, purchasing the old estate known as Greenway, which had been the residence of Governor John Tyler and was the birthplace of his son, President John Tyler.

Following up his successes, he began attending the meets at the great Western and Eastern tracks, and beginning with only a few horses, increased his stable until for more than twenty years he has been one of the best and most successful turfmen in this country.

When the winter racing was in vogue in New York, Mr. Bradley won a small fortune with his great horse Blitzen, whose remarkable performances won for him the sobriquet of the "Iron Horse"; but the greatest triumph of the Virginia turfman's life was when his colt, Robert Waddell, won the great American Derby at Chicago in 1901. This colt was bred and trained at Greenway, and was the son of Aloha, out of Virgie, and but for an untimely accident would have made a career that would have classed him among the great stakes horses of the country.

Mr. Bradley also raced his stable at New Orleans and in Canada, besides at one time having horses at the tracks in California. Many years ago he began to give attention to the breeding of thoroughbreds, and has owned in the neighborhood of a hundred head on his different breeding farms. Startle, Prosper, Blitzen, Aloha, Milan and Masc are among the best stallions kept in the stud at Greenway during the years Mr. Bradley has been raising colts. Of all of these, Aloha has proved himself by far the best sire.

Blitzen, Traverser, Peter Paul and Boney Boy were among other famous horses raised and trained at the Greenway stables. Mr. Bradley was a well-known figure at the Benning and Washington spring meets, and until the past year has hardly missed a meeting. About a year ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never recovered, and for some months past he has been under the almost daily care of his physicians.

Tribute of a Friend. An intimate friend of Mr. Bradley spoke of him as "the most unique character on the American turf, one who was brave, sympathetic, upright and fearless." His training methods were all his own, his specialties in raising and training some of his horses being quite unique. He was known to his neighbors in Charles City and New Kent counties as a good man, a kind friend, a devoted husband, and one who dispensed a generous old Virginia hospitality at his home, Greenway.

There will no doubt be a large attendance of the people of the neighborhood at his funeral this morning.

Attempt to Rob Train. LOUISVILLE, KY., April 25.—An attempt was made last night to rob a passenger train on the Southern Railway near English, Ind. The robbers fired a bridge, W. E. Cummins, town marshal at English, was wounded in attempting to arrest the robbers. With bloodhounds a posse started in pursuit to-day.

Freight Depot Burned. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., April 25.—Fire totally destroyed the Wisconsin Central freight depot in this city to-day, entailing a loss of $100,000. A strong northwest wind made the firemen's task hard, and they were several times forced back by explosions of one tank carload of automobiles was destroyed.

MUST NOT ATTACK RAILROAD CREDIT

To Do So Checks Development, Declares President Finley.

ALL ROADS MUST BORROW

Hostile Legislation, in Its Final Analysis, Injures Public, He Says.

MOBILE, ALA., April 25.—President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, delivered an address this afternoon before a large number of representative business men under the auspices of the Mobile Commercial Club. He was introduced by Vice-President E. L. Russell, of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. President Finley, said in part:

"The commerce of the United States, with the Latin-American countries, is now growing more rapidly than that with any other part of the world, and the completion of the Panama Canal will give a great impetus to the development of all the countries south of it."

"There are only two ways of reaching markets—rail and water. Neither is sufficient alone. Water transportation is not adequate for interior commerce, nor by itself for coastwise or for foreign commerce. Rail transportation must stop at the shores of the sea. It would be just as logical for the people to array themselves against water transportation, or to undertake to hamper and cripple it, as it is for them to array themselves against railroads and to favor success which will hamper and cripple them."

"I think it is apparent that any public utility, such as the railroads, which limits their power to increase their facilities and their carrying capacity to keep pace with the ever increasing population and the ever increasing capacity and their credit, or that their credit is dependent upon sustained earning capacity."

"I do not believe that with a full knowledge of the facts and with an appreciation of the destructive consequences to the railroads, to their revenues, and to their capacity to serve the public, either the Governor or the Legislature would have favored the legislation in question, and when the true facts are known, I have supreme confidence that the course of the company and of the other Alabama carriers will be upheld by the conservative, and by the sense of justice and right."

Representative Burton, of Ohio, who accompanied Secretary Taft on his recent trip to the Panama Canal and the West Indies, talked with the President for some time to-day. Mr. Burton favored the suggestion that politics were considered.

CAR SHORTAGE SERIOUS.

Stuyvesant Fish Calls It Real Railroad Evil of the Day.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Stuyvesant Fish, former president of the Illinois Central, and now president of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain roads, was in Chicago yesterday to attend the meeting of the American Railway Association.

"The atmosphere has cleared greatly because of the slump in Wall Street," said Mr. Fish. "It is now possible to see the situation as it really is, and I am severely criticized when I predicted it. The greatest problem before transportation companies is how to protect the investment of the public in the company, and the general business, as I do not see any recession in sight for a year or two, at least. It is necessary to make any extensive improvement in the matter of new road may affect the iron and steel market to some extent, but I see no cause for alarm."

GOULD ON R. R. RATES.

Fears Reduction Will Seriously Hurt Credit of Roads.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Just before he sailed for Europe to-day, George J. Gould was asked his views on the business and financial conditions of the country. He said that he had no fears as to the future. The country was never so prosperous before, and the future looked bright. He was questioned as to the two-cent fare for railroads, he replied: "I am not in favor of it. It will hurt the railroads, for there is no limitation of passenger traffic, and this will prove to be a great injury."

On general railroad legislation, he said: "I am in favor of much of it, but against anything that will hurt the credit of the railroads. No railroad can borrow money under the present conditions."

PENROSE TALKS WITH PRESIDENT

Had Long Chat at the White House, But Was Silent Afterward.

CONSPIRACY DINNER MAN

Pennsylvania Senator Gives Further Denial That He Was in Combination.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, whose name has been freely mentioned in connection with the giving away at a dinner of the details of an alleged conspiracy against President Roosevelt, was visitor at the White House to-day. This is Senator Penrose's first visit to the White House since the publication, which he denied a day or two afterward.

When the Senator came out he was immediately surrounded by a group of newspaper men. The Senator was not very communicative, and declared again and again he had nothing to say of any consequence.

"What was the object of your visit, Senator?" "It was purely social. I had a very nice visit."

"Did you explain to the President why the Pennsylvania Legislature refused to endorse him for a third term?" "I did not."

"What do you think of the third-term proposition?" "Don't think."

While Senator Penrose was at the executive offices, Senator Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, called in. He went direct to Secretary Loebe's office. Senator Bourne, it has been commonly reported, was the host at the dinner at which the details of the so-called conspiracy against the President were said to have been given out. Senator Bourne saw the President after Mr. Penrose had left. He declared, however, that there had not been any conference between the President, Senator Penrose and himself, and that he had not seen Mr. Penrose during his visit to the White House.

Later President Roosevelt discussed national policies and some of the business of the Republican National Committee with its acting chairman, Harry S. New, who remained with the President some time. With the newspaper men, Mr. New would not talk politics.

MOB MOTORMAN FOR BOY'S DEATH

Injured Passengers Beaten Back When Police Reserves Arrived.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The sight of the horribly mutilated body of a six-year-old boy, who had been run over and killed under his wheels, to-night transformed the passengers of a Coney Island surface car into a maddened mob, which would have killed the motorman but for the arrival of police reserves, who clubbed the infuriated mob back. The car, operated by George Decker, was moving through Franklin Avenue, Brooklyn, when Edward Kelly, in play, ran out of a side street onto the track. The car struck him and he fell in such a position that the wheels severed his head from his body. The car stopped abruptly its passengers swarmed out. An instant later they vented their rage upon the motorman, who was dragged from the platform, thrown on the pavement and trampled upon. He was finally rescued by the police and hurried to a hospital. He may die.

DAUGHTERS' MONUMENT.

Confederate Memorials for Thirteen State Capitals.

NEW YORK, April 25.—If the plans of the United Daughters of the Confederacy to erect monuments to the daughters of the South whose heroism and devotion forms one of the brightest pages of the Civil War will soon stand in the capitals of thirteen original States. The idea originated with General Irvine Walker, of Charleston, and was announced by the president of the New York Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. James Henry Parker, at the annual luncheon of that body held to-day at the Hotel Astor. The thirteen States will be invited to place casts of the original statue or group in their capitals.

LOTTERY MAN GIVES BOND

Alfred Morris Boun dOver to United States Court.

NEW ORLEANS, April 25.—Alfred Hennen Morris, of New York, who was recently indicted by the United States grand jury at Mobile, Ala., for alleged violation of the anti-lottery laws, was arraigned before the United States commissioner here to-day. He waived examination, and was released after giving bond for his appearance in the United States courts at Mobile. The case of David Hennen Morris, of New York, and Frank T. Howard, of New Orleans, who were also indicted at Mobile on this charge, will come up before the United States commissioner here to-morrow and Saturday respectively.

DEAD MAN FEARED THE JILTED WOMAN

(Continued from First Page.) daughter, and together they discussed the coming event. Miss Stroup attracted the attention of the mother and daughter by her evident desire to overhear their conversation, changing her position in the car so as to better hear them talking.

Bride-to-Be Prostrated. Miss Sampson, the bride-elect, who was prostrated by shock last night, is somewhat better to-day. She was arranging the bride's table when notified that Ross had been shot and instantly killed. She said to-day: "I did not know Miss Stroup. I was aware Mr. Ross kept company with her before he commenced calling on me four years ago, but I was under the impression he had stopped, and never dreamed of his corresponding with her."

"Had Miss Stroup come to me Wednesday when she arrived in Oil City, or at any time after the first announcement of our proposed marriage, and told her story, which has the appearance of being true, I should never have permitted the marriage ceremony to have been performed. If that had promised to marry this girl, she should have been his wife."

That Ross apprehended trouble at his wedding is shown by a request made of the Sampson family that there should be plenty of light in front of the house, in order that he might see the guests as they entered the front door.

PLOT TO KILL PRINCE ALBERT

Anarchist, with Dagger, Found in Confessional Box and Arrested.

BRUSSELS, April 25.—An anarchist, armed with a dagger, a loaded revolver and other weapons, was arrested to-day in a church, where Prince Albert, of Belgium, nephew of King Leopold, and heir presumptive to the throne, was about to visit. One of the attendants of the church accidentally discovered the man hidden in a confessional box, locked the door and called the police. Later three other anarchists, similarly armed, were arrested in the vicinity of the church. The case of David Hennen Morris, of New York, and Frank T. Howard, of New Orleans, who were also indicted at Mobile on this charge, will come up before the United States commissioner here to-morrow and Saturday respectively.

Clogging the Wheels of Progress.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—The Pennsylvania Railroad, it is said, is about to order several improvements now under way to be stopped.—The Sun.

It had been the intention of the Harlem Division of the New York Central road to equip its trains this summer with sanitary water-coolers. It is said, however, that the plan was recently dropped. "Before our trial upon this monster enterprise," said President Mollen, "we wish to know where we stand."
